

News Archive

Title: Professional Exams Put on hold due to Covid 19

Date: June 1, 2020

Andrew Franze and Tracey Smith spent many nights and weekends in preparation for the Professional Geologist exam in March. Unfortunately the sudden impact of Covid 19 caused cancellation of the Spring exam just days before the test. For now it is expected that the tests will be administered in the fall. Other members of the KEY team are expected to take the Professional Engineers exam this fall.